RE: Perle Menashe
5105 Kapiolani Loop, Princeville, HI 96722
Loan No. 169917400 - Countrywide Bank

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is correspondence dated December 21, 2009, during which I introduced this office as representing Perle Menashe of Princeville, Hawaii with regard to her loan and mortgage dated June 7, 2007, to Countrywide Bank in the original amount of $600,000.00. In that earlier letter I made a request under RESPA for a certified copy of the original promissory note and a copy of the appraisal of the property taken at the time of the loan. To date I have had no response.

Ms. Menashe is a mortgagor seeking information she is entitled to regarding the aforementioned promissory note and mortgage. My client has struggled to maintain her obligations under her mortgage. She is entitled to have her requests answered.

On December 31, 2009, your office forwarded correspondence requesting written authorization from Ms. Menashe. I obtained her authorization and on January 22, 2010, and forwarded the written authorization to you, a copy of which is also enclosed.

Since that time I have just heard from my client that she was contacted by your office directly, seeking verification of her signature on her authorization, using her signature on the original promissory note. Without providing a copy of the promissory note allegedly signed by Ms. Menashe, your service agent then informed her that in their opinion her signatures did not match and therefore Ms. Menashe would have to prove her identity otherwise!

This communication was all done directly with my client by your telephone representative, without any information provided or consent obtained by this office as her attorney. When a communication comes from her attorney requesting this information, it is not only insulting and unfair, but unethical to ignore the legal representative to speak with the client. By this continued obstruction and discourtesy shown by your employees, I find that your servicing this loan is clearly meant to impede, delay and frustrate legitimate mortgagors requesting information that is required to be maintained and provided upon request.

At this stage, it is my opinion that you are in violation of the original RESPA order requesting copies of the note and copies of the appraisal. My office will now begin a forensic audit of the note and mortgage to confirm this office's suspicions that there have been several federal and state violations committed by Countrywide at the time of the refinance, as well as probable predatory lending and dishonest underwriting of the loan.

Preliminary to that forensic audit, this letter shall now serve as the second Qualified Written Request pursuant to RESPA (12 USC §2601 et seq.), for the following information:

1. All documents which relate to the original loan transaction which is the subject of this request (hereinafter, the "transaction"), including but not limited to, loan application(s), good faith estimate(s), loan commitment letter(s), Truth in Lending Disclosure Statement(s), Notice(s) of Right to Cancel, HUD-1 or final settlement statement(s), promissory note(s)/agreement(s), mortgage(s)/deed(s) of trust.
